Description

Sam Young is the one of the most sought after DJs on the London and international scene. From Donatella Versace, Jimmy Choo, Alexander McQueen, Justin Timberlake, Gwen Stefani, Missy Elliott, 50 Cent, Kings of Leon, Axl Rose, Sadie Frost, Tatler Magazine, Sam now has one of the most enviable client lists in the business; he has played for some of the worlds most glamorous celebrities at various clubs around the world, including Madrid, St Tropez, Rome, Hong Kong and New York. Spinning at many Brits and fashion wk parties Sam has had his fair share of press (3am in The Mirror, Heat, More, Tatler, In Style, Daily Mail).

Sam has also held a residency or has played at most clubs in London. He is currently resident at many of Londons best clubs, including Boujis, Silver, Movida, Volstead, The Wellington and Kabarets Prophecy. With an encyclopaedic record collection and the ability to mix a huge range of different music genres in one set, Sam is the ultimate PARTY ROCKER, keeping crowds guessing with an eclectic mix of tunes.

Brought up in Ladbroke Grove, Sam was naturally influenced by his surroundings from a young age. The spirit of the carnival and the music of the streets soon worked its magic on Sam and, from the age of 14, he began to collect old and contemporary records of all genres and in turn began to develop his skill on the decks. Sam began playing at various friends parties and clubs, enabling him to develop his mixing skills: his big break, however came when he met up with Jeanette Calliva, party planner for Woodhead Calliva, Jeanette was immediately impressed with Sam and asked him to play at her birthday party. The rest as they say is history.

Sam was soon DJing at the infamous Weds @ Chinawhite and Sat @ Mayfair Club, djing in front of guests like Leonardo De Caprio, Busta Rhymes, George Michael and Jamiroquai. Sam was also responsible for signing KASABIAN to SonyBMG in 2002 after working with Concept Music in A+R. Sam also spent 2 1/2 yrs on Juice Fm in West London a pirate station. Presenting two shows week. Sam has two 12"s out right now, 'Peep This' feat Aphletik (www.aphletik.com) and a remix ep. You can find them if you Google my name, my 'Signs' remix is on www.itstherub.com Currently in the studio with Scratch from the Roots putting finishing touches to his forthcoming mix cd and various other acts. Sam has also set up his record label Nod Factor which is distributed online by Juno Digital.
